Please be advised that Customs Procedures in Baltimore have temporarily changed.

We have a slight change in procedure going in to effect today.

Drivers should still go to customs first to present titles before delivering the vehicles. Customs will only accept 80 per day.

After they reach 80 units, they will direct the drivers to go directly to lot 300 to both present their titles and deliver the vehicles.

Representatives will be available at lot 300 to accept titles from the drivers. So there should be no additional delays.

- This procedure is an interim one until Grimaldi is able to take over the title work ourselves which will happen over the next month or so.
